We are approaching the 40-year anniversary of Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on January 22, 1973. Yet, the stark reality is that despite its formal legality, abortion is more stigmatized, more dangerous to provide, and more difficult to access than at any time in the last 40 years. If we do not reverse this trajectory very soon, we will lose this right and condemn future generations of women and girls to forced motherhood and lives of open enslavement, terror, and life-crushing shame.
