U.S. Threatens North Korea: What's Behind the Conflict?

The United States carpet-bombed North Korea during the Korean War (1950-1953). An American general bragged "We burned down every town in North Korea and South Korea, too." On July 11, 1952, an all-out assault on the city of Pyongyang involved over a thousand bombing runs in a 24-hour period. Highly concentrated incendiary bombs were followed up with delayed demolition explosives. Above: Part of Pyongyang at the end of the war.
