

" What Black Lives Matter is doing now to bring attention to the problem of a criminal justice system that is sometimes not treating people fairly based on race or reacting to shootings of individuals by police officers has been really effective in bringing attention to problems. [But] you can't just keep on yelling at them and you can't refuse to meet because that might compromise the purity of your position... The value of social movements and activism is to get you at the table, get you in the room and then start trying to figure out how is this problem going to be solved."

HELL NO, Obama! The aspiration of the slave is not a seat at the master's table. Stop yelling? Again, HELL NO! Now is the time to step UP resistance as part of preparing for an ACTUAL REVOLUTION.

WE NEED TO OVERTHROW,
NOT VOTE FOR, THIS SYSTEM.

Get Ready for an Actual Revolution to Bring This System Down...

And Bring Something Much Better Into Being
