

YOU'RE INVITED:

A Revolutionary Picnic

Be a Part of Radically Changing the World

The National Tour to Get Organized for an Actual Revolution is in LA this month and invites you to join us and break bread and find out about how humanity really could get free from all the madness and brutal oppression of the world today.

If you feel the Points of Attention on the other side of this invitation, you belong at this picnic.

Sunday, April 28th, 2019
Noon – 3 PM

Hoover Recreation Center Park
Hoover and West Adams

Meet Tour organizers from all around the country who are on the road for a year. Find out about the leader of the revolution, Bob Avakian, and the new communism he has developed.

We have a lot of what we need to make revolution. We have the strategy, the leadership, the vision and plan for a new and far better society.

But, what we don't have yet is thousands of people like you. The aim of the National Tour is to organize thousands now to impact millions to prepare for the time when we could actually make and win a revolution.

Bring your experiences and creativity and join with others as we put our heads together to work on problems such as: How can the word of revolution spread in big and small ways? And, what are the ways we can make connections online and in real life between people and groups so that the revolution is organized and spreading across the city and the whole country?

Break bread...Meet new people...Find out more ... Kick it...
All as part of a Revolution to Emancipate Humanity!
